1 5 following:
1 6 NEW SECTION. 99F.7A PARI=MUTUEL
1 7 WAGERING AT RACETRACK ENCLOSURES == PROPOSITION ==
1 8 ADDITIONAL TAXATION.
1 9 1. If gambling games at a racetrack enclosure have 1 10 been authorized pursuant to this chapter and upon 1 11 petition of the eligible voters of the county where 1 12 the racetrack enclosure is located equal in number to 1 13 at least one percent of the votes cast in the county
1 14 for the office of governor at the 2002 general
1 15 election, the board of supervisors shall submit a
1 16 proposition to the county electorate on whether pari=
1 17 mutuel wagering shall be authorized at the racetrack
1 18 enclosure. The petition shall be filed with the board
1 19 of supervisors within ninety days of July 1, 2004, and 1 20 shall comply with section 331.306, except that the 1 21 board of supervisors shall notify the commissioner of 1 22 elections to schedule the special election within one
1 23 hundred eighty days of July 1, 2004. The proposition
1 24 shall consist of the following question:
1 25 "Shall pari=mutuel wagering be conducted at the 1 26 racetrack enclosure located in this county?"
1 27 2. If the proposition to conduct pari=mutuel
1 28 wagering at a racetrack enclosure is disapproved by 1 29 the county electorate, pari=mutuel wagering shall not 1 30 be conducted at the racetrack enclosure and the 1 31 commission shall note this limitation on the 1 32 applicable license.
1 33 3. A licensee of a racetrack enclosure not 1 34 authorized to conduct pari=mutuel wagering pursuant to 1 35 this section shall pay an enhanced county endowment
1 36 fee equal to eight percent on any amount of annual 1 37 adjusted gross receipts of the licensee over three
1 38 million dollars. The racing and gaming commission
1 39 shall immediately revoke the license to conduct
1 40 gambling games of any licensee that fails to pay the 1 41 enhanced county endowment fee as required by this 1 42 subsection. Notwithstanding any provision of this 1 43 chapter to the contrary, the fee collected pursuant to 1 44 this section shall be deposited in the county
1 45 endowment fund created in section 15E.311.>
